Design Services

Professional Standard. Designer will provide the services identified in the Statement of Work. Designer will provide these services in a professional manner, and in accordance with applicable professional standards.

Deliverables. Designer will provide its Deliverables to the Client in professional design formats. These formats may include Adobe Creative Suite files such as Photoshop (.psd) and Indesign (.indd). The Client understands that it may need particular software and expertise to utilize the deliverables. If the Client would like its deliverables in a specific file format, the Client must request to have the format included in the Statement of Work.

Change Request

A "Change Request" is any request for work outside the scope of the Statement of Work.

If such a request is made, the Designer will notify the Client that it is a Change Request. If the Client still wants to proceed with the Change Request, the Designer will bill the work on a time and materials basis, at the Designer's standard hourly rate of $15/hr. The Designer may also extend its delivery schedule.

If the Change Request alters the scope of the project by more than 20%, the Designer may submit a new proposal to the Client.

Payment

Invoice. The Designer will invoice the Client according to the Statement of Work. Client shall pay all invoices within 15 days of receipt.

Expenses. In addition to Designer's fees, the Client will be invoiced for Designer's expenses. Other Expenses incurred by the Designer in performing services to the Client will be invoiced to Client. Other Expenses include, without limitation, postage, shipping, models, presentation materials, photocopies, equipment rental, photographer's costs and fees, photography and/or artwork licenses, prototype production costs, talent fees, music licenses, software licenses, online access, Software as a Service, and hosting fees.

Taxes. Client is responsible for paying all applicable taxes, including sales, use and value added taxes.

Late Payment. Overdue balances may be charged a monthly service fee of 1.5% (or the greatest amount allowed by law).

Delivery

Timeframe. The Designer will use commercially reasonable efforts to perform the Services within the schedule outlined in the Statement of Work. Designer's delivery timeframe depends upon the Client's prompt response to any questions or requests for Client materials.

Designer Agents. The Designer may hire third party designers or service providers ("Design Agents") as independent contractors. The Designer is responsible for Design Agents' compliance with this Agreement.

Testing & Acceptance. The Designer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to test Deliverables before providing them to the Client.

If the project includes XHTML or HTML markup and CSS templates, the Designer will use HTML5 markup and CSS3 for styling. The Designer will test the markup and CSS in current versions of Safari, Chrome, Firefox, and Internet Explorer. The Designer will not test websites in older browsers, unless specifically identified in the Statement of Work.

The Client shall promptly review all deliverables, and must notify the Designer of any failure to conform to the Statement of Work within 5 business days of receipt. If Designer does not receive a timely notification, the Deliverable will be deemed accepted. The Client's notification must clearly identify the problems with the Deliverable.

Client Responsibilities. Client must promptly: (a) coordinate any decision-making activities with 3rd parties; (b) provide Client Content in a form suitable for reproduction or incorporation into the Deliverables; and (c) proofread deliverables.

Client Rights in Deliverables.

IP Assignment. Upon completion of the Services and full payment of all invoices, the Designer shall assign IP rights to the Client. These IP rights include all ownership rights, including any copyrights, in any artwork, designs and software created by the Designer and incorporated into a Final Deliverable, except as otherwise noted in this Agreement.

Designer Rights in Deliverables.

Preliminary Works. Designer retains the rights to all Preliminary Works that are not incorporated into a Final Deliverable.

Designer Portfolio. Designer may display the Deliverables in the Designer's portfolios and websites, and in galleries, design periodicals and other exhibits for the purposes of professional recognition. Likewise, the Designer may publicly describe its role in the Project.

Credit. If the Designer incorporates credits into the Deliverables, any use of the Deliverables shall continue to bear the credits in the same form, size and location. Designer credits will not be incorporated into any logo designed for the Client.

Designer Tools. The Designer may incorporate certain Designer Tools into the Deliverables.

"Designer Tools" means all design tools developed or utilized by Designer in performing the Services, including without limitation: pre-existing and newly developed software, Web authoring tools, type fonts, and application tools.

In the event Designer Tools are incorporated into any Final Deliverable, then Designer grants Client a royalty-free, perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive license to use the Designer Tools to the extent necessary to use the Final Deliverables. Designer retains all other rights in the Designer Tools.

Designer and Client Relationship

Non-Exclusive. This Agreement does not create an exclusive relationship. The Deliverables are not a "work for hire" under Copyright Law.

No Assignment. Neither party may assign its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party. Any such attempted assignment will be void ab initio. Consent is not required for a disposition of substantially all assets of the assigning party's business.

Confidential Information. Each party shall maintain Confidential Information in strict confidence, and shall not use Confidential Information except (a) as necessary to perform its obligations under the Agreement, or (b) as required by a court or governmental authority.

Confidential Information includes proprietary technical and business information, Preliminary Works, and any other information marked "Confidential."

Exception. Confidential Information does not include (a) any information that is in the public domain, (b) becomes publicly known through no fault of the receiving party, or (c) is otherwise known by the receiving party before obtaining access to it under this Agreement or properly received from a third party without an obligation of confidentiality.

Termination

Discretionary Termination, Upon Notice. Either party may terminate this agreement in its business discretion upon sufficient advance notice. The amount of notice required is 1/4 of the estimated project duration. For example, if the Statement of Work estimates the services will take 80 days from kick-off to final delivery, advance notice of at least 20 days will be sufficient for discretionary termination.

Discretionary Termination by Client. IF: Client uses this discretionary termination provision, THEN: Designer will retain all payments already made as of the notification date, and Client shall pay Designer (a) for all expenses incurred as of the date of notification of termination, (b) an early termination fee equal to 25% of the total project fee, and (c) No IP rights will be transferred.

Discretionary Termination by Designer. IF: Designer uses this discretionary termination provision, THEN: (a) Designer will retain (or, if not paid in advance, will be due) all costs already incurred and a prorated portion of the fees for services performed up to the termination date, (b) Designer will assist Client in transferring the project to a new designer, and (c) Designer will assign sufficient IP rights to Client to allow Client to continue the project.

Termination for Bankruptcy. Subject to any restrictions imposed by law, either party may immediately terminate this Agreement, if the other party either: (1) ceases to do business in the normal course; (2) becomes insolvent; (3) admits in writing its inability to meet its debts or other obligations as they become due; (4) makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (5) has a receiver appointed for its business or assets; (6) files a voluntary petition for protection under the bankruptcy laws; (7) becomes the subject of an involuntary petition under the bankruptcy laws that is not dismissed within 60 days.

Termination for Breach. If a material breach of this Agreement is not cured within 10 business days after a party's receiving notice of the breach, then the non-breaching party may terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice.

Termination Procedure. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement: (a) each party shall return (or, at the disclosing party's request, destroy) the Confidential Information of the other party, and (b) other than as expressly provided in this Agreement, all rights and obligations of each party under this Agreement, exclusive of the Services, shall survive.

Client owns sufficient right, title, and interest in the Client Content to permit Designer's use of the Client Content in performing the Services,

To the best of Client's knowledge, Designer's use of the Client Content will not infringe the rights of any third party,

Client shall comply with the terms and conditions of any licensing agreements which govern the use of Third Party Materials, and Client shall comply with all laws and regulations governing the Services and Deliverables.

Designer Representations.

Designer represents and warrants to Client that:

The Final Deliverables will be the Designer's original creative work, except that Designer may incorporate Client Content, work from its Designer Agents and third party material (for example, stock photos, or Software as a Service).

For any Final Deliverable that includes the work of independent contractors or third party material, Designer shall secure sufficient rights for Client to use the Final Deliverables for their intended purpose.

To the best of Designer's knowledge, the final Deliverables will not infringe upon the IP rights of any third party. However, Designer will not be conducting any type of IP clearance search (for example, Designer will not be conducting a copyright, trademark, patent or design patent clearance search).

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The services and the work product of the Designer are sold "as is." In all circumstances, the Designer's maximum liability to Client for damages for any and all causes whatsoever, and Client's maximum remedy, regardless of the form of action, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be limited to Designer's net profit.

In no event shall Designer be liable for any lost data or content, lost profits, business interruption or for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary or punitive damages arising out of or relating to the materials or the services provided by Designer, even if Designer has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

LIMITED WARRANTY

Except for the express representations and warranties stated in this agreement, Designer makes no warranties whatsoever. Designer explicitly disclaims any other warranties of any kind, either express or implied, including but not limited to warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose or compliance with laws or government rules or regulations applicable to the project.

Force Majeure

Either party may invoke Force Majeure to excuse the failure of its timely performance, if such failure was caused by: fire; flood; hurricane, tornado, or other severe storm; earthquake; act of war; sabotage; terrorism; riot; interruption or failure of electrical or telecommunications service (for example, Internet failures); or failure of suppliers, subcontractors, and carriers to substantially meet their performance obligations.

Failure to make a payment may only be considered a Force Majeure event if caused by an interruption in a third-party payment systems that otherwise qualifies as a force-majeure event. A party invoking force majeure to excuse its failure of timely performance must show that the force-majeure event(s) and their relevant effects (i) were beyond the invoking party's reasonable control and (ii) could not have been avoided through the exercise of due care by the invoking party.

Indemnification

Applicability. This indemnification clause governs all obligations arising under this Agreement (if any) that require a party (the "Indemnifying Party") to defend an individual or organization (a "Protected Person") against a claim, for example, a claim made by a third party.

Indemnification. IF: A third party makes a claim that, if finally successful, would establish a breach of a representation or warranty of this Agreement; THEN: The party who made the representation or warranty will: (i) defend the Protected Person against the claim (as defined below), and (ii) indemnify each Protected Person against any monetary award entered on the claim (as defined below).

Indemnification Against Damage Awards. (a) The Indemnifying Party will indemnify the Protected Person against all monetary awards resulting from a final judgment or award from which no further appeal is taken or possible. (b) Such monetary awards include, for example, damages, penalties, interest, and attorneys-fee awards.

Defense Obligation. (a) If the Protected Person requests legal defense, the Indemnifying Party will provide a competent defense against the claim. (b) IF: A Protected Person fails to timely request a defense; THEN: The Indemnifying Party will not be responsible for any harm to the Protected Person that may result from the delay. (c) If the Protected Person does not request a defense against the claim, the Indemnifying Party may elect, its business discretion, to provide a defense anyway. (d) For the avoidance of doubt, the defense obligation of this section applies, without limitation, to any claim brought in a judicial, arbitration, administrative, or other proceeding, including for example any relevant appellate proceedings in which the claim is at issue.

Control of the Defense. IF: The Indemnifying Party provides a defense against an indemnified claim; THEN: (a) The Indemnifying Party is entitled to control the defense of the claim. (b) The Protected Person must provide reasonable cooperation in the defense of the claim; the Indemnifying Party will reimburse the Protected Person for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses actually incurred in doing so. (c) The Protected Person must not make any non-factual admission concerning the claim without the Indemnifying Party's consent. (d) The Protected Person must not waive any defense to the claim without the Indemnifying Party's consent.

Control of Settlement. (a) The Indemnifying Party has discretion to settle the claim on behalf of the Protected Person, PROVIDED THAT the settlement terms do not (i) impose any obligation or prohibition on the Protected Person, nor (ii) include any admission by the Protected Person. (b) Any other settlement of the claim by the Indemnifying Party requires the Protected Person's prior written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld. (c) If the Protected Person settles the claim without the Indemnifying Party's prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld), then the Indemnifying Party will have no liability to the Protected Person in connection with the settlement.

Assumption of Control by Protected Person. A Protected Person may assume control of its defense. IF: A Protected Person does so; AND: The Indemnifying Party has previously tendered performance of its obligation to provide a defense; THEN: The Indemnifying Party will have no further responsibility or liability to the Protected Person (including for example defense and/or indemnity liability) in respect of the claim in question.

Modification & Waiver. Any modification of this Agreement must be in writing. Failure by either party to enforce any right or seek to remedy any breach under this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of such rights nor shall a waiver by either party of default in one or more instances be construed as constituting a continuing waiver or as a waiver of any other breach.
